Biographical Note

Mark Kaufmann was an award-winning photographer for LIFE magazine where he was on staff for thirty years. At age seventeen he became the youngest photographer ever to have a photograph on the cover of the magazine with a portrait of Eleanor Roosevelt. In 1953 he received the White House News Photographers' Grand Award. He later taught photography at California Polytechnic State University and served as the director of photography for Playboy magazine. He died in 1994 in California. (NTY Obituary)
