Scope and Content Note

The Walter Chappell Collection contains biographical information, study prints, and a selected negative inventory pertaining to the work of Ray Jerome Baker (1880-1972), photographer. Material gathered by Chappell in Hawaii while doing research on Baker. The study prints were made by Chappell from original negatives housed at the Bernice P. Bishop Museum in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Folder one contains original, handwritten inventory of select Baker's negatives. Folder 2 has a biography of Baker's life and bibliography of materials written by Baker. Folders three through five contain a total of sixteen study prints printed by Chappell from Baker's original negatives. The final folder houses a large envelope once used to mail photographs from the Bishop Museum to Chappell.
